Disclaimer

This pathway is only intended for use by health professionals in the north region of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

This pathway and the materials in it, including but not limited to, all content, articles, text, graphics, images, pathways, and publications (material) is designed and offered for use by health professionals practising within their vocational scope, and is for general information purposes only. This pathway is not for access or use by consumers, patients, or people who are not health professionals.

Please be aware that this pathway may contain health or medically-related materials, including information that some people may find offensive.

The information on this pathway does not replace clinical decision-making.

The material is for use by health professionals as a guide only, and does not replace clinical decision-making. The material is not designed to be, and is not a substitute for, formal clinical guidelines, educational texts, or specific medical or related advice or opinion, and should not be taken as such. We are not responsible to you, or anyone else, for any loss suffered in connection with the use of this pathway or the material on it.

Drug information is included in the pathway as a guide only. Before prescribing, apply clinical judgement and check all information with a formulary and/or Wasfaty for complete guidance on indications, contraindications, dosing, and drug interactions.

Although we make reasonable efforts to update the information on the pathway, we make no representations, warranties or guarantees, whether express or implied, that the content on this pathway is accurate, complete or up to date.

This pathway was designed with the support of international subject matter experts in clinical pathway development. In addition, local clinical experts lead the development and review of this pathway, providing local information to tailor the pathway information, including the available facilities, and the required resources and links. While the editorial process is designed to ensure accuracy, all information should be verified.

Information about health providers in this pathway does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of their services. The use of any listed providers is undertaken at the user's own risk. The list of providers in this pathway may not be comprehensive.

We make no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied about the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability or availability with respect to the pathway or the information, products, services or related graphics contained on the pathway for any purpose. Any reliance you place on such material is therefore strictly at your own risk.
